Western Approaches Museum, Liverpool

On Sunday 19th November we have organised a guided tour at the Western Approaches, Liverpool, L2 8SZ.

The museum is located on Romford Street, below the offices of Derby House. As you enter the building you will discover the top secret wartime headquarters that battled against the deadly German U-boats to keep Britain supplied with vital convoys in the Battle of the Atlantic.

To ensure that the group get the best experience, our personal guided tour is limited to 20 people. The admission price is £16.50pp, but may vary slightly depending on the numbers.

Unfortunately, there is no designated visitor car park, however, there is plenty of public car parking available within a short walk of the museum. Alternatively you can take a train (Merseyrail) and get off at James Street Station, which is a few minutes walk from the start of the tour.

If you wish to take part in this tour, please let Paul Floyd know ASAP. Places will be allocated on a 'first come first served basis'. Paul can be contacted via email – pf3199@hotmail.com

Detailed joining instructions will be circulated to all participants prior to the event.
